Dr. Barnes Leads Student Council Forum on Friday

• DR. HARRY ELMER BARNES, eminent American historian and sociologist, will lead the second Student Council Forum, Friday at 8 p.m. in Gov. 102. His subject will be "The War and Changing American Society," Council Forum Director Royce Lowry announced Sunday.

Dr. Barnes is a lecturer in economic history at the New School for Social Research in New York City. He has written voluminously in the field of social and economic history.

His dozens of works include "Society in Transition," "History of Western Civilization," "Intellectual and Cultural History of the Western World," and "Economic History of the Western World," which is used as the textbook in the economic history of Europe course taught at the University.

Dr. Lowell J. Ragatz of the University History Department has aided Dr. Barnes in his research work for several volumes, notably "Intellectual and Cultural History." Dr. Barnes' books are used in several of Dr. Ragatz's courses.

Director Lowry promised that the Forum will be over by 9:30, thus enabling those who wish to attend the Buff 'n Blue Room to do so. Dr. Barnes' talk will be followed by a brief period of questions from the floor.

The Student Council's first forum of the year featured Brig. Gen. Louis E. Hershey, then acting director of the Selective Service System. Gen. Hershey discussed the military aspects of the National Defense Program and how it would affect the college youth of America.

The program was a great success as Gen. Hershey turned out to be as charming as he must be efficient.

Stage Door Will Be Next Play

• "STAGE DOOR," the Edna Ferber-George S. Kaufman drama of jealousy frustrated ambition, aspiration and love-centered around the occupants of a New York rooming house for would-be actresses, has been announced as the next major presentation of Cue and Curtain.

With the play scheduled to be given January 9 and 10 in Pearce Hall, production will get under way immediately. Floyd M. Sparks, graduate director of the organization, has been holding tryouts for the cast during the past week, and the complete ensemble will be announced some time this week. More than thirty roles will be distributed, one of the largest number for a University production.

Rated by Burns Mantle to be one of the best plays of the 1936-37 Broadway season, with Margaret Sullivan, in the leading role, 1938 saw the production moved to a major movie studio. Included in the screen cast were Ginger Rogers, Katharine Hepburn, and Adolphe Menjou.

With the scheduled presentation of "Stage Door," the dramatic society will be continuing its policy of bringing to the local boards major Broadway successes. Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" and the Hart-Kaufman production of "You Can't Take It With You" were scored as major hits for the group, and, with Clare Booth's Nazi-biting satire, "Margin for Error," marked the first presentations of these plays by amateur organizations of this city.

In order to complete further plans for the next production, Director Sparks has called a meeting of Cue and Curtain tomorrow night in Gov. 1. All members are expected to be present.

Pi Delta Epsilon Gives Dance Tuesday

• PI DELTA EPSILON, honorary journalism fraternity, will hold a dance in the Student Club next Tuesday night in honor of the publication staffs. All members of The Hatchet, the Cherry Tree, and the Handbook are invited to attend. Outstanding feature of the evening will be the presentation of the Pi Delta award to the first year man who has done the most outstanding work in journalism. New members will also be tapped.

Sue Burnett Resigns From Hatchet Board

• SUE BURNETT, member of the Board of Editors of The Hatchet since September, 1939, has submitted her resignation from the Board. The resignation was effective Sunday.

300 Students Will Receive Chest X-Rays

• A UNIQUE ENDEAVOR in mass production in medicine begins tomorrow at 1 p.m., when the District of Columbia Tuberculosis Association in co-operation with Dr. Bob Harmon and the University Medical Administration undertakes the task of making chest X-rays of any student, member of the faculty or employee of the University, who is willing to pay the cost price of 75 cents for the X-ray tuberculosis tests.

"When operations get under way it is expected that three or four persons per minute will receive the X-rays," the association announced. The machine is set up in the office of Charles E. Merry, business manager, in the basement of Building D and will be in operation between the hours of 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Dr. Harmon announced that men and women will be segregated. Women should report between the hours of 12:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., and the hours for men will be 2:30 until 4 p.m. In response to the announcement, two weeks ago that chest X-rays would be made at cost price, approximately 300 students notified Dr. Harmon of their desire to take advantage of the offer. Dr. Harmon wishes it made clear that this request that interested students notify him was made only to determine the minimum number who would take the X-ray diagnosis if the association furnished the machine. Prior application to Dr. Harmon is not necessary to take advantage of the offer.

Student Council members acting as volunteer workers will assist in the reception of students, the issuance of cards, and the clerical work necessary in keeping records for identification of the X-ray plates, Council President Frank

Pi Lambda Theta Hears Dr. Bagley Speak Tomorrow

• PI LAMBDA THETA, national women's honorary education society, will sponsor a lecture by Dr. William Chandler Bagley, Professor Emeritus of Education at Columbia University in honor of Dr. William Carl Ruediger, University Professor Emeritus of Education, at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Hall of Government.

Dr. Bagley, a noted lecturer and educator, was an instructor at Columbia University and the University of Illinois, and is the author of several books on sociology and education. He is a past editor of the National Education Association Journal and at present is editor of "School and Society."

The lecturer was a colleague of Dr. Ruediger at the University of Wisconsin and the Montana State Normal Teachers College. Dr. Ruediger was former Dean of the School of Education and Provost of the University and is Professor Emeritus of Education.

'Pop' Discovers Supervising Parking Lot No Easy Job

By CHARLES BEACHY
• G. W. PHILLIPS is the University's number one booster, but most of you know of him only as "Pop." "Pop" Phillips is the head man on the University parking lot. And if you think playing nuremberg over 300 automobiles a day is a "sissy job," well, "Pop" will tell you differently.

His biggest worry is finding places for the late arrivals. Although the lot holds exactly 209 cars when filled to capacity, it is always "bulging" with sedans, coupes, jalopies, old cars, and "Finance Company cars" promptly at 8:00 each morning.

To get the lot full requires a skill unknown to the layman. Little cars are best suited to certain spaces, some cars must be "staggered" to permit a driving lane, and others must cling daintily on the side of a hill.

It doesn't matter if the weather is hot or freezing cold. "Pop" is always on the job, cheerful and efficient, despite his 73 and a half years. "Pop" scoffs at his age and

Alumni Invite Bell to 'Football Night' Program

• THE ANNUAL "Football Night" Smoker of the University Alumni will be held December 17, at 7 p.m., at the Wardman Park Hotel. This year the club will also celebrate the golden anniversary of football at the University, along with the presentation of letter awards to the members of the freshman and varsity football teams.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Brian Bell, Chief of the Washington Bureau of the Associated Press and a leading sports authority, while Coach Bill Reinhardt and Athletic Director Max Farrington are also scheduled to speak. Master of ceremonies will be Dean Elmer Louis Kayser.

The smoker will include a buffet supper with plenty of food and beer, movies and songs, and music. Tickets are two dollars, and may be secured from Lester Smith, Alumni Secretary, 2033 G Street, N. W. NATIONAL 5200.

Glee Clubs

• THE FIRST PUBLIC appearance of the combined Men and Women's Glee Club will be held at the Church and College Night Service at the Foundry Methodist Church, Sunday at 8 p.m.

School Symphony Holds Auditions

• THE STUDENT Symphony Orchestra has graduated from an idea last week to a possibility this week. Under the guidance of Ruth Rosenfelt, student organizer, nine auditions have been held for positions in the orchestra, with the first rehearsal scheduled after the Christmas holidays.

Rehearsals will be held every Sunday at 7:30 p.m. At present the orchestra is in need of a vocalist. Miss Rosenfelt has announced that those interested in joining the orchestra should call her at CHestnut 1988.

Buff 'n Blue Reopens Friday Featuring New Floor Show

• FEATURING an entirely new floor show and presenting Art Brown as master of ceremonies, Buff 'n Blue reopens Friday night at 9:30 in the Student Club for the second installment of the Room's current season of entertainment.

The members of the new floor show, selected from talent uncovered in a series of tryouts and rehearsals held by the promoters of Buff 'n Blue, Joan Gilles and Vinnie De Angelis, will go through their paces with the "Royal Blues" orchestra in a final rehearsal tomorrow night.

Featured together in a floor act will be Accordion Player Betty Burnett, class of '40, who appeared on floor shows of the first season of Buff 'n Blue, and Violinist Ernest Sharo, graduate student, formerly a student of the Juillard School of Music of New York, and at one time a guest artist on WNYC's "Radio Workshop."

Vocalists will be Margaret Copeland, Mary Garrett, singing and whistling Morris Ossias, and Grant Sherk, and if Peggy Butterfield, whose musical experience includes a season in the chorus of the Chautauque Opera Company of New York and who is now a member of the University Glee Club, is not presented on the show Friday night, she will sing for a subsequent Buff 'n Blue Room, De Angelis said.

The vocalizing abilities of Grant Sherk, a Phi Sigma Kappa and Glee Club member, have been used on the radio program of Lee Everett and with Steve LeSueur's orchestra on the Roger Smith Roof. Chi Omega Pledge Mary Garrett, also a member of the Glee Club, for After serving four years as an apprentice, he was responsible for construction work on many Washington structures including the Bureau of Engraving Building. Later he served as an outside guard at the Treasury Department for 23 years until he was retired. Since that time he has been in charge of the parking lot.

Assisting "Pop" with the thriving carchecking business are some five N. Y. A. students who work from two to three hours each day. When one car leaves, there is always another waiting to claim the coveted space, small as it may be, and these replacements account for the extra hundred cars accommodated in the lot each day.

At the beginning of school, students are required to show their activity books to gain admittance,

McKool Announces Try-outs Tomorrow For Cheering Posts

• AT LONG LAST, after recommendations to the Student Council, conferences with Mrs. Barrows and Mr. Farrington, howls from The Hatchet and promptings from the Rousers and the Better Cheers Committee, Mike McKool, head cheerleader, proclaimed yesterday that the University would have girl cheerleaders by December 19, for the Oklahoma basketball game.

Following final approval from Mrs. Vinnie G. Barrows, Director of Personnel Guidance, and Max Farrington, Athletic Director, McKool issued the first call for girl cheerleader candidates to be present at the next meeting. Try-outs for girl cheerleaders will be held tomorrow at 7:15 in D-105. The rejuvenation of the pep-leading staff will begin with a bang as the girls get into the swing of things and a Hatchet photographer stands by to record them for posterity.

Three girls will be chosen for the staff according to their abilities and potentialities in the art of yelling. Max Farrington announced that the girls will get their uniforms shortly after they are selected. They will wear blue sweaters, white pleated skirts and white shoes.

Sororities and girls organizations have been issued special notices calling candidates to the tryouts.

Delphi Holds Extra Service For Campbell

• DELPHI broke a long established precedent in initiating Betty Campbell Thursday afternoon at a tea. The women's honorary activities societies usually taps its prospective members in the spring at the Panhellenic Dance, but as this is Betty's last year she was honored with a special tea held in the Phi Mu rooms at which all the members of Delphi were present.

Betty, daughter of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Boniface Campbell, was president of Zeta Tau Alpha and was its candidate for Sweetheart in the past election. She is well known on campus, and made varsity basketball last year.

The new Delphi initiate has attended the University only two years, being a transfer from Randolph-Macon College in Lynchburg, Va., where she was a member of the Spanish Club, W. A. A., and Phi Theta Kappa, an honorary scholastic society.

• THE FIRST CONTRIBUTION by an individual to the annual Student Council Food Drive was made last week by President Cloyd Heck Marvin. Shown with Dr. Marvin are the co-directors of the Drive, Anne Blackstone and Kim Vought.

Congress Elects Sunday (Again?)

Plans First Legislative Meeting For Same Day; Rep. Buckworth Appears at Hearing Tuesday

• MAYBE CONGRESS will meet this Sunday, at 2:30, in Stockton 30. Maybe a new president will be elected. Maybe the Foreign Affairs Committee will introduce a bill. Maybe! That's the program released by Congress spokesmen, but it is sheer journalistic suicide to predict the exact outcome of any affair scheduled by our own Congress.

This is December, exactly 13 shopping days 'til Christmas, and to date the following have been accomplished: One (1) president has been elected; one (1) president has resigned; zero (0) legislation has been passed; 33 (some say more) party meetings have been held; 38 (some say many more) personal quarrels and character intimidations have been voiced; zero (sic) committees have held hearings. Total: exactly 73 assorted elections, resignations, party meetings, and personal insults.

But wait! Maybe somebody's conscience hurt (past tense), maybe brisk December weather has stimulated the collective energies of some profound but sleepy politicians. Maybe a little fairy tale by Mr. Columnist Nathanson in last week's rag touched somebody's heart. Maybe it is the grand Christmas spirit. At any rate, Congress accomplished five things in the past week. As follows:

(1) It planned a meeting for Dec. 15 in Stockton 30, at 2:30 p.m.—First, a new president will be elected. This is necessary because Edgar Baker resigned from the office following charges of unconstitutionality of his Nov. 13 election. Also, Mike McKool and his committee on Foreign Affairs will propose a bill.

(2) The executive council met on Dec. 4 and elected five committee chairmen. They are: Mike McKool, L.D., Foreign Affairs; Paul McClennon, Jr., Taxation and Public Finance; Ward McCabe, L.D., Hemisphere Defense; Daniel Fustled, Jr., National Defense; Frank Boyce, S. D., Labor and Welfare.

The council also passed a resolution praising Baker for his "noble and gallant action" in resigning his post as president.

(3) A hearing on Foreign Affairs has been set for Thursday night, in D-305, at 8:15.

Engineer's Council Erects Campus Christmas Tree

• A 30-FOOT Christmas Tree will adorn Lisner Terrace this Yuletide, through the efforts of the Engineers' Council, Professor F. A. Hitchcock, and varied and assorted other engineers. The lighting ceremonies will be held next Monday at 5 p.m., with University Sweetheart Anne Thomas, President Cloyd Heck Marvin, Dr. Robert Harmon and the Glee Clubs, and Leon Brusloff and the Band participating. It is expected that classes will be postponed until 5:20 p.m.

Alpha Chi Sigma Plans to Initiate Three Saturday

• THE UNIVERSITY chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma, professional chemistry fraternity, will hold its initiation ceremonies at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Corcoran Hall.

The potential initiates are George S. Cook, Walter Bonwald, and Chester Lowe, Jr. The day before (Friday the 13th!), as part of the examination which they are required to take, the pledges will hand in their "scientific papers," a customary ceremony which will also be held in Corcoran Hall.

New Defense Classes Begin Tomorrow

• SPONSORED BY THE FEDERAL Government in connection with its rapidly expanding defense program, the series of seven special defense courses to be offered by the University will get underway tomorrow night.

Dean Frederick M. Felker of the School of Engineering has announced a complete list of the classes to be offered and a list of instructors. A special staff of instructors, all of them government experts in their particular fields, will teach the courses in co-operation with Professors Frank Hitchcock, Arthur F. Johnson and Alfred Ennis of the University's engineering faculty.

The series of courses have been worked out in co-operation with the Federal Government through the Office of Education, and all student's tuition will be paid by the Government.

Studies to be offered are: Concrete Inspection and Testing; Map Making and Interpretation; Surface and Aerial Navigation; Construction Materials, Properties, Tests and Specifications; Structural Steel Design; Ship Construction; and Radio Communication.

Requirements for prospective participants in the program vary from one to three years' college engineering credit or the equivalent. Courses are not offered for college credit, but are a part of the special supplementary defense curricula. All classes will be held in the evening.

Six of the courses will be conducted for a period of 15 weeks, while the seventh requires 30 weeks of study.

Directors Set Goal At $1,000

Anne Blackstone And Kim Vought Head the Charity

By BRUCE BRYAN

• GENEROUS University students, having the impulse to help others at the Christmas season, need look no farther than the annual Food Drive to find a worthy cause to which they may contribute.

Sponsored by the University, as its only official charity, the ten-day campaign for money to provide food and clothing for needy families officially got under way yesterday. In an effort to materially increase the amount received last year, a quota of $1,000 has been set for this year.

In 1939 a total of $670.35 was received from the student body. With this sum, 220 families were aided in temporary relief.

Acting as co-directors of the drive this year are Anne Blackstone and Kim Vought. Under their direction plans have been formulated for complete coverage of the students and campus organizations, in an effort to induce closer co-operation. Anne Blackstone, speaking of the campaign, said, "There is no reason for our failing to fill our quota. We have at our command capable committee chairmen, and we are sure the student body will co-operate in this project as they have in others."

Robert Roadley has been appointed to the post of business manager for the drive. Chairmen of the eight committees appointed by the directors are: Campus, Judy Donnelly; faculty, Jane McGraw; sororities, Phil Young; fraternities, Anne Thomas; business organizations, Mary Ella Hopkins; individual campus organizations, Mary Louise Frise; religious organizations, Serueh Kimble; Strong Hall, Phyllis Cady and Agnes Rossbacher, co-chairmen.

Murray Berdick and Harriet Weber have been appointed publicity directors.

At an eleven-hour meeting of the entire Food Drive Committee, several plans in their entirety were announced to the group. In addition to the quotas assigned sororities, fraternities, and other campus organizations, bottles will be placed in the Student Club and at other strategic spots throughout the University buildings to receive donations. Pledges of campus sororities will also be on the campus with bottles to receive contributions.

An innovation in the form of pledge cards will also make its appearance this year. Students unable to contribute at this time, but desiring to do so, will be asked to fill out a card for either 50c or $1 to be payable on Dec. 16. This will permit another pay day before donations need be made. The com-

Colonials Hold Ball At Hotel Annapolis

MEMBERS of Varsity House threw aside headgear, shoulder pads, and other customary regalia to celebrate the close of football season and the beginning of basketball with a dance at the Annapolis Hotel Saturday night.

In sort of a black-out atmosphere, with sweet music by Bob Lee's Aristocrats, the Varsity boys turned to dancing as a means of exercise. Highlight of the dance, according to some at least, was the in-between-the-halves skit put on by several of the boys. "Hall to the Buff," "Down by the Old Millstream," and "Dinah" were warbled in as many different keys as the boys could think of, two or three keys at a time. Participating in the skit, with freshman hats as their only costume, were Stan Ziobro, Ellis Hall, Murphy Booth, Johnny Picco, Matt Zunie, John Clarey, Lou Veltri and Mike Monchovich.

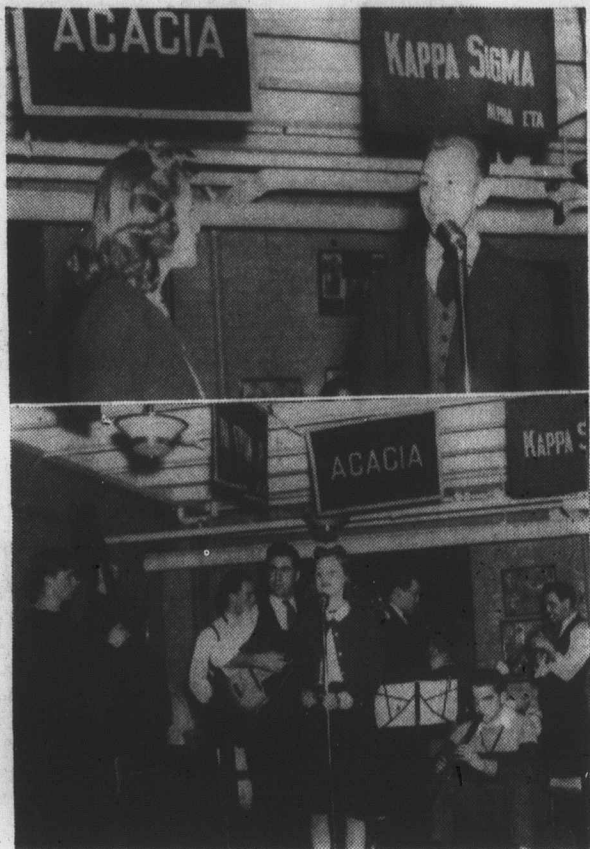

Seen among the feminine contingent were Margaret Williams, Pat O'Connor, Nancy Ann White, Paula Zippel, Sue McNeese, Nancy Oulds, Mary Armstrong, Mary Henshall, Barbara Manton and Doris Jean Griffith.

Bob Nowaskey, star end of last year's team, who is now playing with the Chicago Bears, made his appearance during the evening accompanied by the biggest pair of shoulders seen in a long time. These belonged to Ed Coleman, tackle for the Bears, Tuffy Lee-mans, former University player, and star back for the New York Giants also joined the throng.

The dance was one of those "just right" dances.

Stan Ziobro was social chairman for the affair, assisted by Frank August, Ken Batson and John Clarey.

Buff 'n Blue Rehearsal

French Club Celebrates At 1st Dance

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT marked the first dance of the Cercle Français. It was a delightfully informal affair given in honor of new members.

To the strains of the latest hit tunes and South American recordings, members of the club and their guests, including members of the Spanish and International Clubs, danced in the Student Club. Among those who participated in the activity of the evening were Professors Alonzo, Protzman and Delbert.

The most interesting feature of the evening was the Conga in which most of the group participated. The dance, which was performed several times was led by various students from South America who were experts on the subject. Some of the dances were patterned after French dances, the figures being called by members familiar with style français.

There were also present some artists of the rumba and tango who exhibited their talents to the enjoyment of all.

The dance, which is the first one ever given by the University's French Club, was under the management of Manuel Mendez, President of Le Cercle Français and Professor Delbert.

The next event of interest planned by the Club is their Fete de Noel which will be held December 19.

E., vice president; Jim Boggs, Kappa Alpha, social chairman; James Bacon, Theta Delta Chi, secretary; Phil Merkle, Kappa Sigma, treasurer, and Tom Coleman, S. A. E., activities chairman. Pat Deming, vice president of the Interfraternity Council, represents that organization in the pledge council.

Panhel Pledges Gives Annual Goat Show Thursday

THE JUNIOR PANHEL, pledge auxiliary to the Panhellenic Council, will hold its first traditional event, the Annual Goat Show, Thursday night at 8:30 in the Student Club. Admission is ten cents.

This is one of the two main events held by the "baby" council every year. The Panhellenic Pledge Prom is scheduled for February 11.

The pledge class of each sorority puts on some form of skit less than 10 minutes long. These are judged for originality and entertaining qualities and a cup is presented to the sorority winning the competition. If a sorority wins this cup three years in succession, it gains possession of the cup.

Jerry Sickler will be master of ceremonies. Mr. Alan Thomas Delbert and Dr. Howard M. Meriman will judge the show.

Kappa Kappa Gamma won the goat show last year for the skit, "The Name of Kappa Has Been Loved Through the Centuries." Delta Zeta placed second and Phi Beta Phi third.

Pursuit of Knowledge

By HELEN CARSTARPHEN

"You have to show your activity book!"

"Oh, yes, that's right. That's really me, even if you wouldn't know it. What, you think it looks like me—really—why it looks like the Rogie's Gallery. Hum, well maybe it does. Jane take a look around and see if you see him—I don't want to seem obvious. You don't! Well, he has to be here—you know who I mean, don't you? Wait a minute—let me look. There he is—way in the back. No, I can't just go over and sit with him. I tell you let's sit right next—yes, this is fine. Do I look all right studying—which is the best side of my face. O. K. like this. Is he looking? Oh, wonderful. Now let's see—Oh, Jane, I'm going outside for a drink. Uhuh, you watch."

I wasn't long, was I? Well, I met the Varsity House man. He is not yours—I laid prior claims. Well I know, but after all he's cute, too. Well, did you watch for me. He did—looked after me. Now what do you think—wasn't that good? Ah, maybe I'm getting somewhere. It's about time. . . I'm going to give up—Oh Jane! There's your man. Over there, see, and there goes Evelyn. Wouldn't you know she'd beat you to it? Oh, she's not very cute anyway. He doesn't like her. I know he likes you—Oh, did I tell you what I heard—I didn't. (I'm sorry, mister, we'll talk lower just for you) the drip—Well, he told Jim who told Marjia that he thought you had the (lowered voice). Yes, he did—I swear it. I wish he'd say that about me.

Come on out and let's have a cigarette. I can't talk to you with that thing looking on at us. (Back in the library again). Now where'd he go? Well, let's sit over here by the door so we can watch. This is a good idea—. When he comes back maybe he'll come over—method in my madness. Yea, I've got to study. This is the stupidest course. What do I care what Herodotus said. Say, Jane, read this—why doesn't somebody tell me there are things like this in a book. Oh, this page.

Oh, hello, I didn't know you were here. Did you just come in? Yes, I'd love a coke. Oh, I've been studying all afternoon—didn't even glance around the library. Well, I'll be seeing you, Jane. Come along—

Bridge Club Announces End of Tournament

LAST SUNDAY NIGHT was the scene of much excitement and card slinging when the Bridge Club held its Duplicate Bridge Tournament.

Paul Troctor and Ben Newton won for East and West, and Bill Weinert and Rudy Ashton for North and South. Winners of the door prizes were Rut McGee, who received a bottle of port, and Lois Kennedy, whose prize was a box of candy.

Another bridge tournament, offering more fun and prizes will be held tonight. All who would like to come should see either Ed Gee or Heiny Steinbach in the Student Club.

Sig Alphas; Kappa Alphas Riot At Rivaling Annual Brawls

MIDST Tombstone and shrouds, ghosts in chesscloth and snacking, weeping widows and embalmers, S. A. E. flung its annual Bal Boheme in the graveyard on 16th Street.

All was sepulchral. Black drapes lined the walls; coffins lay about the hall, ghosts leered dankly from the corners; a long, funeral tunnel led up the stairs, topped by a large sign reading: "Abandon Hope All Who Enter Here" (which was promptly done).

But the ghosts, the widows, the embalmers were far from sepulchral; in fact, boisterous gale prevailed in the graveyard. "Kutch" Edwards and his band, dressed in black robes furnished music while angels, complete with halo and wings flitted gaily about; sailors and admirals, left over from the Shipwreck Ball, danced with female ghosts in shorts or slacks.

Jimmy Kimbrough as Superman was impressive until his muscles slipped. Fred Stuart, dressed as the Bomber, was escorted by an "embalmer's hostess." The coffin reserved for the first Sigma Chi who passed out, was amply filled by Smoky Stover. Ward Beard was an undertaker who specialized in mangled bodies; two miners with lights on their caps were in demand at the end of the evening to search for dates lost in dark corners. Ghosts present were: George Loveland, Allen Dewey, Frank Moynihan and Dick Warner was a preacher.

While the S. A. E.'s turned their 16th Street residence into a weird graveyard and ghosts pranced in gay glee, the K. A.'s were going tacky out Wisconsin Avenue. The club was crowded with members of other fraternities and friends dropping in consistently during the evening. Even a few of the S. A. E.'s and Varsity House men managed to drop around for a few minutes.

Among the many university belles, Jimmy Forsyth's (and the University's "Kappa Alpha's rose") Anne Thomas, graced the ball. Ruth Warren, Anne Blackstone, Joanne Giles, Kay Norris, Mary Ella Klepkins, Maxine Jackson and Mary Wolford were among those present.

This Week In Greek

THE ENORMOUS round of dances and social gatherings of the last week end failed to tire the Greeks in their continual round of good fun. Plans are being made for Christmas celebrations aside from the usual line of teas, exchange affairs and beer rallies.

The Sigma Nus are the first to herald the arrival of Santa Claus. They'll be giving him a royal welcome at their Christmas formal to be held on Saturday night at the house. The Chi O's will be the next in line to celebrate at their Christmas Dance on December 17. Phi Mu will hold its Christmas formal at the Raleigh, Saturday the 14th.

Included in the dance whirl of last Saturday night was the Phi Sigma Kappa Silver and Magenta Ball, the most formal party of the evening. Meantime, the S. A. E.'s were holding their Bal Boheme, the KA Tacky Party was in full swing and the Varsity House Dance was in session.

Fraternities Pledge Aside from party-going, the Greeks have also found time for some pledges. Tau Sigma Rho has pledged Frank W. Hoover, Jr. and Donald Wooley. Mary Davis has been given the honor of wearing Pi Phi's colors. Theta Delta Chi announces the pledging of Bob Finney.

Pi Phi Entertains Province Officer The Pi Phi's are expecting company this week. Mrs. Samuel G. Spruce, Pi Phi Province president, will visit the local chapter this week.

Another in exchange parties will be a tea dance on Sunday afternoon in honor of the Kappa pledges. The S. P. E.'s will be the hosts for last week end to Roy S. Smith of Orange, N. J. Mr. Smith is the national vice president of Pi Kappa Alpha, national fraternity for men.

Delta Tau Delta will also help along the line of exchange affairs when they entertain for the Delta Zetas at supper and dancing on Thursday night.

T. D.'s Entertain Chi O Pledges Another similar affair was that held by the Theta Delta for the Chi O pledges on Friday night. Highlight of the party was flitterbugging in the Griffith and O'Connor style. Wine and cookies were served for refreshments.

A pot-luck supper was the occasion for the Kappa Delta alumnae to entertain the actives and pledges of the campus chapter on Thursday night. K.D. also had an exchange dinner with S.P.E. last night.

The Delta Zeta pledges will entertain the actives with an informal radio dance at the Officers' Club Bowling Field on Saturday, from

Surprise Shower Held

A surprise shower was given last Tuesday for Reva Schultz, Phi Sigma Sigma, whose engagement has recently been announced.

Delta Tau Delta celebrated their victory over the Phi Sig's with a gigantic "training" table at Dalkers after the game. A "fifth columnist" was discovered in the midst of the merry-making in the person of Bob Dearth.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Matthew of Jelleff's Beauty Salon was the guest of Delta Zeta at their standard's program on Monday night. She gave pointers on how to have a glamorous hair-do day in and day out.

Tau Sigs Travel to Lexington. A group of Tau Sigs are planning a trip to the Washington & Lee basketball game this week end. While in Lexington they will be the guests of the Pi Kappa Alphas.

Among the party will be Paul Van Hemert, Carter Bowen, Ralph Fisher, Clark Cole and Fred Stevenson.

The Uncensored Truth

by Truble Beagle

TO THE NAMES that make the news; to the handsome, the dashing, the beautiful, the homely and the heels; to the indiscreet, the slipper-uppers, and the killer-dillers, introvert and extrovert, this column is sincerely dedicated (and devoted). Also we wish to pay our respects to Helen Carstarphen who used to write here for self protection but who is just grist to the mill now.

Gentle reader, have you a skeleton in the closet? Do you plan anything rash in the future? Then you too have a chance to make the U. C. And that lucky person who finds himself mentioned herein the most by the end of the year will receive: The Truble Beagle Annual Campus Notoriety Award.

But hark! We hear truth calling with its clarion challenge. What is this we have to tell this week?

The Worm Turns

Smooth and dapper Carter Bowen ("Who's Who Among Students", etc.), found himself in the unheeded of situation of having no date for the Tau Sigs Shipwreck Ball week before last. At three o'clock Saturday afternoon he dispatched a hasty wire to Jane Blue who had inconsiderately gone to the Army-Navy game. But alas, the last straw failed and Carter went dateless.

There have been some changes in the Chi Omega pairings since Margaret Floecker was pledged. She seems to have broken up the team of Sister Jean Nessell and Sigma Chi Dick Ballard. Now Jean has to be content with Wally Buell. Oh, well, it's all between the brothers and the sisters.

Foxed Lion

It now comes out that Bob Howard, the social lion, pulled a faux pas on the eve of the Georgetown game. He was one of the ten persons present (not counting the band) at the bonfire, as was Mary Berlin, the Zeta Tau Alpha blonde. Imagine Mary's surprise when Bob stepped up in his dashing way and inquired if she "would like to go off in the corner with me for a little loving?" And imagine Bob's surprise when Dick Bush, Mary's date and cymballer in the band, stepped up behind Bob and declared in righteous indignation: "Oh, no, she doesn't either!"

Beale Lou Says:

Dear Diary: I see that that too handsome Bus Bushman has shaved off his cute I'll mustache this week. I betcha Louise Alden knows why. I always did wonder if those things tickled.

These Charming People

That Rouserman Dick Burrows displayed the biggest heart on the campus this week when he told Helen Carstarphen she could print anything she wanted to about him in her column. Of course, Helen has given up the column to go back to the few friends she has left, but when ever you hear anything about yourself, Dick, just write it up and push it under the Hatchet office door. We'll get it.

By The Way

Mary Henshall, the Shipwreck Queen, offered to drive Tim Sweet home when he left for Montana in October. How touching. . . Now she's doing the Varsity House's American History for it. . . The Kappa Sigma house is graced with a new car these days, which makes two. Brother George Stakeman has just purchased a 1929 Packard, which is about the size of a small bus and sounds like it. Chortled he, with satisfaction: "I always wanted a car with plenty of room in the back seat." Room for what, Jaws? . . .

BILL UMSTEAD, Sports Editor

• FROM ALL INDICATIONS, Bill Reinhart is all set to inaugurate his best basketball season in five years as head court coach. And that is really saying something, for in those five years Willy Willie's teams have won 75 and lost only 25—one of the best records in the country. That record was compiled against the nation's best teams and this season's opponents are of the same high calibre.

Aggies Provide Early Opposition

It will be a tough road for the Buffmen to travel before March rolls around but this observer believes that the quint has the power to come through with a record that will lead it into post-season tournaments. There are few easy games on the schedule and the appearance of Oklahoma A. & M. as the third opponent of the season shows that the University is not seeking setups. Last year the Aggies won 26 out of 29 games and were ranked as the No. 3 team of the country.

On paper the Colonials appear all ready for a great year and in pre-season practice they gave indication of fulfilling this promise. Only three lettermen are lost from last year's team that won 13 and dropped 8 games. While the missing players included George Garber, great floorman, and Reds Auerbach, high-scoring guard, their places will be filled by one of the best crop of sophomores in years. Joe Gallagher will be the fight and fire that will make Garber's loss seem small and Jim Myers is another soph who may make basketball history.

Too Many Star Players

Bill Reinhart will have trouble selecting a starting team because he has such a wealth of material. It looks as though Matt Zunic, Charley Jones, Joe Comer, Bobby Gilham and Lou Veltri will open the season against Washington & Lee, but with a half chance Gallagher or Myers may slip into the lineup. Reserves include such players as Eddie Amendola, who could make most college teams; Roy McNeil, lanky junior; Walt Sether, big sophomore prospect; and Red Rein, another crack soph.

The real test for the Buff quint will come during the Christmas recess when the team faces such competition as the Aggies, Duke, Kansas State, and Minnesota. If Reinhart's squad can get by those opponents they will be all set to establish a season record for future basketball teams to shoot at.

With Riverside Stadium offering excellent playing facilities some of the best teams in the nation may play here next year. That is, they may play here if they think the Buffmen won't be too tough.

Delts Defeat Phi Sigs, Head for Cage Title

• AS THE INTERFRATERNITY basketball schedule rapidly draws to a close, it is almost certain that Delta Tau Delta will meet Sigma Chi for the Greek Championship next Saturday night. On the basis of past records, it would seem that the Delts will have no trouble disposing of Acacia on the 12th, and Sigma Chi likewise should take care of Tau Sigma Rho.

Last week's fireworks were provided by two games that involve four undefeated teams. In League "A" the D. T. D.'s clashed with undefeated Phi Sigma Kappa and sent them down to a 30-15 defeat. The Delts were led by their ace, Dean Nichols, who scored 6 baskets and 5 fouls for a total of 17 points. The Delts led 13-9 at the half and then steadily pulled away.

Sigma Chi walls S. A. E. In League "B", an almost similar situation occurred on the same night when Sigma Chi met S. A. E., both of whom were undefeated. The Sigs handily defeated the S. A. E.'s 30-11. Gaining a commanding lead of 18-3 at half time, Sigma Chi coasted through the last half with their second team playing. Don Nelson was high-scorer with 11 points.

The Greek championship game, to be played next Saturday night, will either be held at the "Tin Tabernacle" or at a local high school. The Sigma Chi's, defending champions, won their crown last year by defeating Sigma Nu, 23-7. The fight in the Touch Football League is entering its final stage as the Kappa Alpha's eked out two wins to qualify for the championship game. The K. A.'s beat the

Tennis Champ Here

• MARY K. Browne, three times National Singles Women's Tennis champion, will give a demonstration at the University athletic conference for high school girls that will be held on December 14, it was announced last week.

Cagers Favored In Opener Saturday

Davidson Is First Home Foe

• COLONIAL courtmen start the ball bouncing on a tough 22-game schedule next Saturday as they journey to Lexington, Va., to take on Washington & Lee. The following Monday, December 16, the Buffmen in their first home game of the season, play Davidson at the Tech Gym. Game time is 8:15.

Against Washington & Lee, the courtmen will attempt to duplicate a decisive 44-31 victory scored last year. This game will also be the first of eleven scheduled games with teams of the Southern Conference.

Zunic Leads Buffmen

Leading the attack for the Colonials will be Matt Zunic, forward, who was second only to "Reds" Auerbach in scoring last year with 150 points, and Joe Comer, lanky center who flashed seasonally in many games last season. Flanking Zunic at forward will be either Eddie Amendola or Charley Jones, both of whom saw plenty of action last year. At guard posts will be Bobby Gilham, smoothest of floormen and shot-making artist, and Lou Veltri, fastest man on the squad and an excellent floorman.

High on the list of reserves are Jim Myers and Joe Gallagher, brightest stars of a frosh squad that lost only one game last year. Roy McNeil and Walt Sether may also see action.

Dobbins May Cause Trouble

Although Coach Reinhart's men expect to walk off the floor on the long end of the final count, considerable trouble is expected from Howard Dobbins, 6-foot 4-inch center, whose great play was rewarded by a berth on the All-Virginia State team, and from Dick Pinck, who practically wrecked the Buffmen two years ago, and played a fine game last year.

Davidson is not expected to furnish such stern opposition. If past records are any criterion, for last year the Reinhart men, against Davidson, went on a scoring spree in which every man on the squad took part, the final score being 74-42. This grand total, though scored in the second game of the season, remained unchallenged through the entire year, and marked the Buff's offensive peak.

Frosh Quint Plays Central In Opener

• FROSH BASKETBALL Coach Otto Zahn glanced at the clock, which registered approximately 7 p.m., barked, "Okay, that's enough for this evening," and walked slowly across the floor of the University Gym toward his locker room. Then sixteen tired, sweat-glistering bodies lined under the baskets to take a few last practice shots before retiring to their shower-room.

The freshman quint had just completed one of its grueling pre-season practices in preparation for its opening game on December 16 with Central High. The game will be a preliminary to the varsity match. Zahn's proteges meet every afternoon in the Gym, following the varsity practice, and spend about two hours on the court. Two teams are chosen, with frequent substitutions insuring fair opportunities for every man on the squad. Individual defense is stressed. This year's squad can boast of no exceptionally tall members, but the average height players will depend on the same clever ball-carrying that brought such success to last season's Yearlings. Last year's record is indeed one to aim at. The Frosh won seventeen games and dropped only five, the final tally with the Georgetown freshmen by one point. These traditional foes will vie again this year, with the Hilltop Frosh gaining an early lead by virtue of their defeat of a Y.M.C.A. team this week, 66-44.

Zahn is unable to name a regular starting five, in view of the progress and competitive spirit shown by the squad as a whole, and he refrains from even mentioning tentative choices. He intimated, however, that much of the play has been dominated by several of the recruits from Illinois and Indiana high schools. Some of the Frosh who appear especially promising to observers are Syl Barnett, Jim Roush, Bob Jackson, Ed Gustafson, John Schumaker and Jim Barnett.

Unheralded All-American in Busick

• MAYBE there weren't any All-Americans on Bill Reinhart's football team this season, but there was one at the University just the same. Publicity Director Johnny Busick won All-American honors for the year by placing on Cartoontist Jim Berryman's all-star selection. Berryman, who draws for the Washington Evening Star, placed Busick at one of the backfield positions and the reason for his choice was—Johnny is really able to shoot the passes to the sports writers.

There's Still Lots of Room For Shooters

• IT'S CATASTROPHIC, but one of the University's best teams in intercollegiate competition is going around begging.

The Colonial rifle team, which is among the best in intercollegiate rifle circles, finds itself short of men. The rifle team took the National Intercollegiate title three short years ago. Coach Frank Parsons is urging any prospective candidates who have had any experience in handling a rifle and who are interested in shooting to come on out for the team.

Parsons believes that there is some misunderstanding as to the possibility of new candidates to make the squad. He assures, however, that with the above requirements and being in school at least one year, new candidates have a great chance to make the squad. He pointed out that three men who have come out for the team within the last month are definitely on the team. He also stated that any who have experience should be shooting in February and March.

Parsons uses the automatic drop out system whereby the ten high men shoot in a match. The following match finds the three low men dropping out for the match to be replaced by the three high men of the five who did not compete in the first match and so on. All in all there will be 15 men in the squad.

The team is still active in a local rifle league which will serve as practice until February 8, when the squad begins its intercollegiate competition.

Hanford Fills Eight Berths in Women's Varsity Rifle Team

• HELEN HANFORD, coach of the Women's Rifle Team, announced that she had selected eight of the varsity ten, but warned that there are still two positions open, and that any member of the varsity may be replaced if she fails to practice.

Those selected so far are Captain Mabel Vierling, Peggy Kinsman, Shirley Schaefer, Eleanor Sholtes, Julia Comer, Elizabeth Toupeaz, Jeannette Walker and Helen Duckson.

A telegraphic match with the University of Illinois on January 8, 1941, is the first varsity match so far scheduled. Matches with Cornell on February 8, and with Beaver, the only school that defeated the Buff girls last year, on March 29, Gunning for their third straight victory, the G.W. sharpshooters will meet Maryland in a shoulder-to-shoulder match on March 8.

Three more girls have earned their Marksman medals by shooting five targets with a score of 83 or better. They are Anne Davis, Constance Oesth and Patricia Powers.

Dan Snyder Wins Place-Kicking Honors

• DAN SNYDER, the Buff's place-kicking tackle, took the honors in a kicking exhibition that was held between the halves of the Washington-Lee-Gonzaga high school football game last Saturday. Booting against such stars as Augie Lio, Georgetown, Pete Sachon, Catholic University, and Bill Neilson, Georgetown, Snyder won the trophy awarded for the best performance in placekicking by sending a boot through from the 45-yard line. During the regular season, Snyder converted five out of ten attempts at points after touchdowns.

A Sad, Sad Story

(Editor's Note: Since David Lyons, Hatchet Sports Writer, reviewed the football season in a poem, there have been requests for more. This is Haynes Mahoney's contribution.)

By HAYNES MAHONEY
I have a name for the hall of fame
Of football's heroes glorious:
Pegeen O'Sheen, a fair chorale,
Who earned her name in the chorus.
Her shapely legs would kick goose-eggs
Right off old Grousemore's score;
And the coach was certain of her
To a fourth on the Tech eleven.
When he needed one point more.

Now Grousemore proceeded quite undefeated
To its last game of the year;
When Heliova Tech tried to make a wreck
Of the fair Pegeen's career.

The game seemed done in the dying
Tuck
Tuck led six to seven;
When the Grouse fought their way
Through the furious fray
To a fourth on the Tech eleven.

"O dear Pegeen, O sweet colleen—"
Then cried the coach with a prayer,
"I'm sending you in, for you can win
With a field goal fair and square."

So gallant, so strong in the shadows
With hands outstretched for fame,
Pegeen stood grim, and flexed the limb
That held the fate of the game.

But Pegeen had an urge that she
She'd had it for aye and aye,
She cried: "I'll do it, though I ever
I'm going to run this play!"

With a fearless call she signed for the ball
And started as fast as the wind,
To finish the year and a glorious career
By running around Tech's end.

She danced and skipped and hula hopped
And hummed her way to the four;
She pirouetted and quite regretted
There weren't ten yards more.

But alas! on the three blond Barney
Medies
"Throw his arms around her neck—"
And she couldn't resist when she was kissed:
The day was saved for Tech!

Her teammates sighed, the Grouse
coach cried
And poor Pegeen was dolorous:
So she powdered her nose and donned less clothes
And went back to kick in the chorus.

Picco Named on Two Opponent Teams

• TWO all-opponent teams were released by a couple of Buff foes last week and Johnny Picco, star Colonial end, was selected on both. The Georgetown Hoyas place Picco at left end and Tony Barauskis, at left tackle on their honor team. Bucknell, apparently well pleased and well impressed by the Buff's showing in the scoreless tie, selected four Colonials on their team. The players picked were Picco, at left end, Ellis Hall, right guard, Ken Batson, left halfback, and Walt Fedora, at fullback.

Covering The COLONIALS

By AL LUCYK

• WE'RE SERVING NOTICE on the Georgetown University that beginning this Saturday to March 5th (excluding, of course, New Year's) the Hoyas will have to give way to their monopoly of the local sport pages.

Gentlemen (and ladies), on that Saturday the Colonials take their cage team to Lexington, Va. From there on the Colonials will begin what may perhaps be called a new era (you Democrats can call it a New Deal) in George Washington University basketball history.

Call it strong language or call it over-enthusiastic school spirit, but the Buff team looks damn good. In fact it looks good enough to go through the strong schedule compiled by one Mr. Farrington. We also want it to be known that this bit of editorial polishing is done without the sanction of either Farrington or Coach Reinhart. Both of these gentlemen would be much too modest to say such stuff.

It need be (and we do not think so) our time might change as the schedule rolls along. Then, oh then, you will remember that all sports writers are TWO FACED (paging Mr. Ruark).

Anyway, G. U. we're giving ample warning and we're expecting our boys to do quite a bit of fancy work on the court this year, so you better vacate.

LOCAL BOYS: Most of the publicity on the court team seems to be centered around the local boys, Gallagher, McNeil, Comer, Sokol and Matera. Hope they make good.

CONFERENCE: We should like to take in the Girls' Athletic Conference this Saturday. Mere curiosity of course, with the addition of three-times single champ, two-time captain of the Wightman Cup team (etc., etc.), Miss Mary K. Browne, as guest leader. But it does sound like an affair strictly for the ladies.

PROFESSIONAL: We ran into Otto Zahn or vice versa last Saturday. We are pleased to hear that Ott is all mended and ready to go for the local professional cage team, the Brewers. For those who do not know, the G.W. great was out all of last year because of a bad back.

IT'S RUMORED: Forward Charley Jones may or may not be out of the line-up Saturday. But we have heard that Charley wrenched a knee in practice last Thursday.

Hershey Stars; Sophomore Team Wins Interclass

• THE SPIRITED Odd-Even game brought the soccer season to a much-dreaded close on the Pilgrims' Thanksgiving Day. The Odd team is a picked group from the Freshman and Junior classes; the Even, a group from the Sophomore and Senior classes. Although the score was 8-0 in favor of the Odds, this game wasn't as one-sided as it sounds.

The Odds had the edge on the Evens in defense, the two forward lines being approximately the same. The rather one-sided score was due perhaps to the fact that several of the Seniors had played together on the same team for four years. However, the Evens' forward lined played exceptionally well, considering that this was their first game together.

Kay Hershey, a junior with a powerful kick, was outstanding in the backfield. Ethel Hoffman, the fast-moving left-inner of the Odd team, made three goals for her side, scoring 6 points. Betty Egloff, the center on the same team, kicked one goal, giving the Odds an additional 2 points.

The one person who has been outstanding in every game of the season is Dot Travis, niece of the Washington baseball player, Cecil Travis. Dot played goalie on the Even team and was also named on the All-Star Soccer Team, named elsewhere on this page.

The Sophomore team won the inter-class tournament, defeating both the Junior-Senior team and the Freshmen. The Freshmen also lost to the Junior-Senior outfit.

Students Skate Under New Tutors At Riverside

• UNIVERSITY ice-skating classes and upperclassmen who elect ice-skating for pleasure will be among the many Washingtonians who profit from the rich and varied experience of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Uksila, newly engaged professionals at the Riverside Stadium.

Experience in organizing new figure skating clubs, instructing in all phases of skating, exhibition and picture work give Mr. Uksila and his wife, Gretle, more than adequate experience upon which to draw.

The couple come here directly from a three-year teaching engagement at the Elysium Figure Skating Club in Cleveland. The club they organized there is now five hundred strong, a fact which bodes well for the Riverside organization.

All University ice-skaters who pay $5.00 for admission and a lesson may stay on and skate until the end of the season. Classes are from 1:45 to 2:45 on Wednesday and Friday and Tuesday and Thursday.
